Heating Professional Training

In Preparation For BPI Heating Professional Exam

Using a "whole house" performance-based approach, this training will cover advanced heating system diagnostics, evaluation, and repair skills to help you prepare for the Building Performance Institute's Heating Professional on-line and field exams. Training will include review of some Building Analyst topics, but is not a Building Analyst preparatory course.

Classroom field training days total 36 hours:

- Health & Safety
- House as a System
- Heating System Analyses
- Distribution System Design
- Combustion Science & Safety
- Duct repair & sealing
- CAZ Analysis

BPI Testing Information:

Following completion of this course, participants will be eligible to take the BPI written/online exam. There will be a written/online exam which satisfies the first component of the BPI certification requirements. Candidates must also pass a field performance exam before receiving certification. Test dates will be selected from a choice given to students during classroom instruction.

Starting February 2012, BPI is requiring that all certification exams be video/audio recorded for submission to them.
